- The Company may carry out business operations in other sectors permitted by the Law and approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

IV. CHARTER CAPITAL, SHARES, FOUNDER AND CO-FOUNDERS

Article 5. Charter Capital, Shares, Founder and Co-founders

- The Company's Charter Capital: VND 1.744.183.040.000 (One thousand seven hundred forty four billion, one hundred eighty three million and forty thousand VND).

The total charter capital of the Company is divided into 174.418.304 shares (One hundred seventy four million, four hundred eighteen thousand, three hundred and four shares). Share value is VND 10,000 par share (Ten thousand dong per share).

- All shares issued by the Company on the approving date of this Charter shall be ordinary shares. The rights and obligations attached to such ordinary shares shall be stipulated in Article 10 of this Charter.
- The company does not have founder.

4. The Company may only increase its Charter Capital upon approval of the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with the Law.
5. The Company may issue preference shares after having the approval of the General Meeting of Shareholders and in accordance with the provisions of the Law.
6. The Company may issue shares at a price which can be paid in installments. The maturity of such installments and the sum to be paid on a periodical basis must be determined upon the issuance of shares.
7. New ordinary shares intended to be issued shall be given priority to be offered for sale to existing Shareholders in proportion to the number of ordinary shares of each Shareholder in the Company, unless otherwise decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders. The Company must give a notice of offering which specifies the number of shares to be offered for sale and a reasonable time-limit (not less than twenty (20) days or other time-limit under the Law) so that Shareholders can order for subscription. The number of remaining shares not subscribed to be purchased by such Shareholders shall be decided by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may allocate the shares to subjects in accordance with the conditions and in a manner that the Board of Directors deems appropriate, provided that the shares may not be sold on conditions which are more favorable than the conditions offered to the existing Shareholders, unless the shares are sold via the Stock Exchange by auction method. Công ty có thể mua cổ phần do chính Công ty đã phát hành theo những cách thức được quy định trong Điều lệ này và Pháp Luật hiện hành. Cổ phần do Công ty mua lại là cổ phiếu quỹ và Hội đồng quản trị có thể chào bán theo những cách thức phù hợp với quy định của Điều Lệ này, Luật Chứng Khoán và văn bản hướng dẫn liên quan.
8. The Company may issue other types of securities as approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders and in accordance with the provisions of the Law.

Article 6. Share Certificates and Other Securities Certificates

1. Ordinary share certificates of the Company must have the primary contents as stipulated in Article 121 of the Law on Enterprises. Preference share certificates (if any) of the Company require other respective contents as stipulated in Article 116, Article 117 and Article 118 of the Law on Enterprises.
2. Shareholders of the Company shall be granted with share certificates corresponding to the number of shares and class of shares owned. Share certificates must bear the seal of the Company and the signature of the Legal Representative of the Company. Share certificate must specify the number and class of shares held by Shareholders, the full name of the holder and other information under the provisions of the Law on Enterprises.
3. Anyone whose name is recorded in the Register of Shareholders holds at least one (01) shares of any class shall be granted, free-of-charge a certificate (if issued) within two (02) months (or a longer period as stipulated by the terms of issuance) after the purchase or assignment (if assigned).
4. In case where only a number of named shares in a named share certificate shall be assigned, such share certificate will be rescinded and one (01) new share certificate recording the remaining shares will be granted free of charge.

5. Where a share certificate has been damaged, erased, lost, stolen or destroyed, the shareholder of those share certificates may request for new issuance of share certificate, provided that he/she must present evidence of the ownership of shares and pay all relevant expenses for the Company in accordance with the decision of the Board of Directors.
6. Owners of anonymous share certificates shall be solely responsible for preserving their share certificates and the Company will not be responsible in any case where these certificates are stolen or used for illegal purposes.
7. Bonds or other securities certificates of the Company (excluding sale offer letters, temporary certificates and similar documents) will be issued with the seal and signature of the Legal Representative of the Company.
8. Within the framework of the Law and securities market, the Company may issue named shares which shall not take the form of certificates, and allow the shares (regardless of whether being issued in this form or not), to be assigned and a document on such assignment shall not necessarily be required; or the Board of Directors may, from time to time, issue other regulations replacing respective regulations in this Charter regarding share certificates and assignment of shares.

Article 7. Assignment of Shares

1. All shares may be assigned freely unless otherwise stipulated by this Charter and the Law. All share certificates listed at the Stock Exchange shall be assigned in accordance with the regulations of the State Securities Commission and the Stock Exchange.
2. Assignments of named shares shall be conducted (i) in writing by normal method; (ii) by hand delivery of share certificates; or (iii) in any other way which may be acceptable to the Board of Directors. Listed shares must be assigned via the Stock Exchange in accordance with the regulations and rules of the State Securities Commission and the Stock Exchange. Assignment documents must be signed by the assignor and the assignee (except where the shares are paid in full). The assignor shall remain the owner of the relevant shares until the name of the assignee is registered in the Register of Shareholders, except for the case where a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders takes place during that time, in which case the assignee shall have the right to attend the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders in place of the assignor for the assigned shares as stipulated in the Law on Enterprises.
3. The shares which have not yet been fully paid shall not be transferable and have related benefits such as the right to receive dividend, the right to receive issued stocks to increase share capital from owners' equity, and the right to purchase new shares as offered for sale.
4. Within three (03) years from the Establishment Date, Founding Shareholders must jointly hold at least twenty percent (20%) of the total ordinary shares which are transferable, and if these shares are assigned to persons who are not Founding Shareholders, an approval of the General Meeting of Shareholders in the Company must be obtained. Shareholders who intend to assign their shares shall not have the right to vote on the assignment of such shares.

5. Founding Shareholders shall not be allowed to withdraw from their status as member of the Company for the first two (02) fiscal years. Termination of status as member must be proposed in writing and sent to the Board of Directors by registered mail. In this case, the remaining Founding Shareholders shall have the priority right to subscribe the shares of the above Founding Shareholders in proportion to the number of shares they own.
6. The Board of Directors shall have the sole right to refuse to register the assignment of any named share for which has not yet been paid in full. Shares which have not yet been fully paid shall not be permitted to be assigned or entitled to dividends. Registration procedures for share assignment shall be stipulated in a specific document or in issuance plan by the Board of Directors.
7. In the event of the death, the loss of capacity for civil act, or the restriction of capacity for civil acts of an individual Shareholder, the heirs or executors of the deceased Shareholder will be the only person or persons recognized by the Company to have the rights to or inherit benefits of the shares. However, this provision shall not mean that the deceased Shareholder shall be exempted from any obligations attached to any shares held by that person.

Article 8. Reclamation of Shares

1. If a Shareholder fails to pay in full and on time the amount payable for the subscription of shares, the Board of Directors may, at any time, send a notice to the Shareholder to request for payment of such amount, together with any accrued interest which may be accumulated on the amount, and costs arising from any failure to pay such amount to the Company.
2. The above-mentioned notice must specify a new time-limit for payment (at least seven (07) days from the date on which the notice is sent), place for payment, and clearly state that in the event that payment is not made as required, the shares which have not yet been fully paid for will be reclaimed.
3. If the requirements stipulated in any of the above-mentioned notices are not fulfilled, the Board of Directors may reclaim all shares mentioned in such notice at any time before all amounts payable, interest and related costs are paid for in full. This reclamation also includes all announced dividends to be paid on the reclaimed shares which have not yet been actually paid out at the time of reclamation.
